THE 'DUKE'

Pride of place goes to The DUKE. Named in honour of John Wayne, this is a replica Wild West stagecoach, with a fully functioning photo booth system built into it.

Complete with sound effects, Wild West music system and loads of additional props, this is not only a stunning photo booth system, it also makes a perfect decorative centre piece for any Wild West event.

TICKET OFFICE

Our Cactus Hoopla is in our Wells Fargo ticket office, to add some additional ambiance to your event.

‘One ring over the cactus to win’

With tumbleweed and cattle skull decorative props, along with resin cactus.

DEADWOOD SALOON

The Deadwood saloon is our shooting gallery, using replica Wild West era rifles, firing corks, you get all the fun of a rifle range and the stunning decoration of a western saloon for your event.

BOOT HILL

Our horseshoe toss game (using real horseshoes) is built into the Boot Hill Grave Yard, with tombstones bearing actual inscriptions from real tombstone headstones. Complete with spooky lighting and mist effects.

THE CHUCKWAGON

Used to serve any of our range of catering options, these can be Wild West themed such as hot dogs, bangers and beans or similar, or it can serve anything from candy floss to pretzels.

Our whisky shots, soft drinks or beer can also be served from the chuck wagon.
